Plaintiffs,

vs.

JAMES C. CASTLE AKA J. CHRISTOPHER
CASTLE, et al,

Case No.: 11-CV-896 YGR

ORDER CONTINUING COMPLIANCE HEARING

On October 31, 2014, counsel for Plaintiffs and for Defendant/Cross-Complainant Prudential California Realty (“Prudential”) appeared for a compliance hearing. In light of their representations on the record, and their late-filed status report, the Court CONTINUES the matter for a further compliance hearing on December 19, 2014, on the Court’s 9:01 a.m. calendar. Plaintiffs and Prudential shall file a joint status report no later than December 12, 2014. If the joint status report is filed timely, the Court will vacate the compliance hearing.

The parties are directed to address the following items in the status report, as discussed on the record:

(1) the status of all motions for default judgment against defaulted individuals and a listing of those defaulted individual defendants Plaintiffs have dismissed;

(2) the status of all motions for default judgment against defaulted “conspirator”/entity defendants and a proposed plan for proceeding to resolve the balance of the action/defendants, including, without limitation, the disposition of the RICO claims against the various defendants;

(3) the status of Prudential's cross-claims, any dismissals or default judgment motions on those cross-claims, and any settlement discussions between Plaintiffs and Prudential.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
